

Environmental Technician Training

Job

successful Youth Corps graduates for careers as Environmental Technicians. This intensive training program includes courses in hazardous waste operations (HAZWOPER) leading to a 40-hour OSHA certification, preliminary assessment and remediation investigation, phytoremediation, instrumentation, innovative clean-up technologies and risk communication. The training combines classroom instruction with hands-on field experiences.

Begun in 1998, New Jersey Youth Corps' established a Brownfields Training Program to train

Environmental Technology occupational categories and jobs include—

- Laboratory Services - Sample Prep Technician, Soil Technician, Instrumentation
- Air
  - Air Quality Technician, Source Sampling Technician, Instrumentation Technician
  - Solid and Hazardous Waste – Environmental Specialist, Hazardous Waste Technician, Recycling Technician
  - Safety and Health – Chemical Hygiene Officer, Safety and Health Auditor, Hazardous Materials Technician
- Natural Resources Management – Horticulture/Landscape Technician, Forestry Recreation Technician, Terrestrial Habitat Restoration Technician, GIS Technician
- Field Services
- Remediation

